OJS News

26 January 2015

We hope you enjoyed the INSET day yesterday. Staff were at school concentrating on planning for the rest of the year's calendar of events and activities.

Reminder this Friday there will be a flash sale for older stock uniform. We need to make room for new stock so, all of the following stock will be offered on a first come first served basis (no reserves) at £5 per item:

Cardigans: various sizes from 11-15 year olds

Round neck jumpers: various sizes from 13-15 year olds

This stock has the older style logo and the fabric is of a darker shade of green. On sale in the school hall 8.30-8.50am.

Oakwood has talent

Tensions are rising to fever auditions. Children are very week. The show is only for parents will be invited to a in the year where the winners pitch around the talent excited about the show next children at school, however Performing Arts Concert later will be invited to perform

Wednesday 4 February 2015

Do you get your newsletter? Does your child remember to bring it home? Haha if you're reading this then possibly yes, however many of you tell us your child forgets their letters or you don't get them until later in the week (newsletters are generally distributed on a Monday or Tuesday of each week) so, we would like to collect as many e-mail addresses as possible so we can send the newsletter out by e-mail. To gather this information, tomorrow Wednesday 27 January, you will receive a text message from Oakwood Junior School on 07786 207779 asking you to reply with your child's name and a valid e-mail address. You will only be able to reply to this message for three days. We plan to distribute the newsletter electronically via e-mail after half term—but don't worry paper copies will still be available from the school reception where you or your child may collect one. Please keep an eye out for the text message and we look forward to you supporting this initiative and working with us to keep costs down and communications up!

HOT OFF THE PRESS..... First day of Science week Monday we have the 'wildlife man' coming in—he will be bringing lots of interesting fossils and talking about prehistoric times.

On Tuesday Yr 6 have The Manchester Actors Company coming in to perform Macbeth. This exciting company have been performing this show to school age children for eight years and feedback is that it is a massive success. We hope our year 6s enjoy the show.

Assembly news:

Last weeks house winner was:
Owls

The next class assembly is Class 9 on Friday 6 February 2015—parents and carers are welcome to join us.

Advance Notice—next week on Friday 6 February 2015 8.30-8.50am all lost property will be made available for viewing and claiming. We will text again the day before to remind you.

You will remember Sweater Day held on 12 December last year. We have had a thank you letter back from Save The Children for our donation of £278 and are delighted to say they have also informed us that this year the Government will match the donation. So well done to everyone by popping on your pullover you have helped make a difference to a child's life.

World Book Day

Monday 5 March 2015, children will be invited to dress up as a book character

Last week our Athletic and football teams played in tournaments. Whilst we did not win any of the tournaments, the children had a fantastic time and gave every game/event their best. At the football tournament in particular a comment was overheard about the children's impeccable behaviour—Well done to everyone who took part at both events.
