OJS News

9 March 2015

Wow—what a fantastic week Super Reading Week has been. The children have enjoyed so many activities over the week surrounding the joy of reading. World Book Day was fabulous and so well supported—a massive thank you to parents for supporting the children and to the teachers and support staff for all making such a great effort. We will try and do a dedicated newsletter later this week, with more feedback and photos of the costumes.

This week sees OJS launch straight into Red Nose Day—we have already sold over 300 red noses in half an hour and sadly are unable to purchase any more but they can still be purchased at the shops. Children around school have been working fantastically hard at ideas to raise money for Comic Relief. We have various cake sales, colouring competitions, super cinema and of course dress up/down/disguise day on Friday or just make your face funny for money. We are not asking children to pay to come in out of uniform on Friday as the majority of children have already purchased a red nose, you are of course always welcome to make a donation. Children will need pennies in school this week for the various activities organised by the children, but please no large amounts of cash, probably nothing more than a £1.

Parents evening is Tuesday 10 and Thursday 12 March—if you have not got an appointment please see your child's class teacher.

Don't forget there will be NO clubs on Tuesday or Thursday due to parents evening taking place; but please do remember Book Fair will be available on the Tuesday evening.

SAT's information will also be available for parents who wish to know more or what is involved.

Assembly news:

Last weeks house winner was: Owls

Wednesday 18 March Premier Sports will be taking assembly and talking to the children about all their exciting after school clubs.

The next class assembly is Class 3 on Friday 20 March 2015—parents and carers are welcome to join us.

Science Week—hot off two full weeks of reading and red nosing

23 March sees OJS children enjoying science week. The week will start off with the fossil man coming into school. This day promises to be super fun with some really amazing activities in school. At the end of the week we will be having our Science Fair where we will showcase the children's work. You should by now have had a letter inviting you to a tour on that day, if you haven't please see the office for another one because replies are needed by Monday 16 March.

Sporting News

Last week our basketball team went to the County Finals and won silver!

The children were all presented with a wonderful medal each and we are very proud of them on their achievement.

Older Persons' Event—We are holding this massively popular event again on Thursday 19 March for Easter. Initially we will be inviting older persons' who were unable to attend at Christmas.
