Open Sessions

I like to offer parents a few open sessions where you can come in and speak to me privately about your child and any additional needs. After half term these will be:

Friday 1st March: 9-10am

Monday 4th March: 2-3pm

Tea and Toast SEND Meeting

Thank you to all the parents and children who came to the SEND Tea and Toast session back in January. I know those who came took advantage of the visit from the school nurse and Coral Schloss (behaviour Support).

Thursday 7th March

TEA AND CAKE AFTERNOON (SEND)

I am trying to alternate the times of the SEND social events so that everyone has the opportunity to come along. Those who have already attended have found the events very useful as they are able to talk to like-minded parents and find support and help in the agencies which attend. Again both the school nurse and Coral Schloss will be attending. So come along and have a cake and a natter!

Our new 'SEND Parent Voice' group will also introduce themselves to you. They are keen to share their own expertise and knowledge of supporting children with additional needs. They have a wealth of knowledge – you might see them when you collect your child from school as they will be handing out leaflets to advertise the Tea and Cake session.

Do you know about:

Family Fund – an excellent website which offers lots of support from:

- Checking the benefits you are entitled to
- Offering grants for a weekend away
- Offering grants for purchasing technology
- Mental health and well-being discussions
